

MASTER'S DEGREE IN LATIN AMERICA AND THE EUROPEAN UNION: A STRATEGIC COOPERATION

BASIC AND GENERAL COMPETENCES:

- To develop critical knowledge.
- To learn how to integrate interdisciplinary knowledge.
- To know how to communicate and apply acquired knowledge in socially and ethically responsible ways.
- To understand and evaluate critically and comparatively contemporary Latin America and the European Union from a multidisciplinary perspective (human and social sciences).
- To acquire the ability to offer complex explanations by inter-relating different explanatory variables.
- To develop necessary learning skills which enable ongoing, self-directed study.

SPECIFIC COMPETENCES:

- To acquire the ability to triangulate different existing, quantitative and qualitative, primary and secondary, information sources, by developing deep, quality interdisciplinary approaches to the humanities and the social sciences in relation to contemporary Latin America and its relations with the European Union.
- To handle precisely the different theoretical concepts and methodological approaches of the human and social sciences.
- To know the forms of academic writing and speaking (subject essays, master's dissertation, articles, papers, talks, etc.).

For additional information, see the Memorandum.