1.a COURSE DESCRIPTION

The aim of this module is to introduce students to legal and business translation from a theoretical, terminological and documented approach. The main features of these types of translation will be presented and a wide range of text types will be analysed, translated and discussed. Students will learn the main characteristics of legal and business language and get acquainted with the most frequent genres in these spheres of activity. They will be trained in the different translation stages, processes and procedures involved, and in the management of sources of information to justify their decision-making.

1.b PRESENTACIÓN / COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerrequisitos y Recomendaciones / Prerequisites and Recommendations

Students are expected to have a B2.2 level of English and Spanish (Common European Framework) when they start the course (which means that students are expected to be able to follow explanations, take notes, and ask questions, as well as provide the answers for the activities in both languages). Students in their 3rd year, for their part, will be expected to be well on their way to achieving an advanced level of English (C1) in all four communicative skills and this will be taken into account in their final mark.

NOTE: Erasmus students must certify their level of English and Spanish (B2) at the beginning of the course in order to be admitted into the group.

5. EVALUACIÓN / ASSESSMENT: Procedimientos, criterios de evaluación y de calificación

All students will be graded following a process of continuous assessment. Different aspects of the course will be evaluated separately throughout the semester in order to obtain an overall continuous and formative final mark for the course mark. This means that all the students will have to participate actively and effectively in classes as well as in all the group activities. A minimum of 80% attendance is compulsory.

Exceptionally, those students who have been recognized as eligible for final evaluation in accordance with the terms in article 10 of the "NORMATIVA REGULADORA DE LOS PROCESOS DE EVALUACIÓN DE LOS APRENDIZAJES" (passed on 24-03-2011) may sit for a final exam which will include questions on all the topics covered in the class and a series of translation tasks.

Those students who do not pass the continuous evaluation or the final exam will have the right to be assessed again in June by a similar (extraordinary) exam plus various translation tasks.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Those students who commit plagiarism in any of the activities will receive a FAIL mark in the corresponding activity.

Assessment criteria

Students should demonstrate they have acquired the main concepts and competences related to this module. Thus, by the end of the course, students are expected to be able to:

- Demonstrate they have acquired the necessary concepts in order to describe the distinctive features of legal, administrative, business and financial texts with a view towards their translation

- Identify translation problems, both general ones and chiefly those specific to legal texts
- Understand, identify and handle tools and documentation sources to solve common translation problems and justify their solution
- Demonstrate that they have acquired specialised knowledge of basic terminology, genres and formats related to legal translation in English and in Spanish
- Translate efficiently legal texts from English into Spanish.

Taking all this into consideration, students will be graded as follows:

Assessment procedures

Continuous assessment will be based on:

Assessment	Assessment criteria
- Participation in classes	Active participation in tasks, activities, discussions, etc.
- Tests	There may be tests, which may also include questions about the theoretical aspects discussed in class. Students must prove their ability to translate a legal and/or business text as well as to use the appropriate discourse. Translation and language errors will be penalised.
- Translation tasks	Students will submit different translation activities throughout the course in groups. In doing so, they must prove that they can translate fluently using appropriate language, source and tools. Translation errors and language mistakes in Spanish and English will be identified and discussed.
- Translation project	Students will work on an individual translation project, which may include some of following tasks: translation of the given text; creation of a glossary; correction of the translation by peers, etc. Assessment will be based on the translation process, the final product and the students' ability to make effective corrections.
